Claims 1-10 lack novelty under PCT Article 33(2) as being anticipated by US 2002/0143692 A1 to Heimermann et al. (hereinafter .Heimermann.).

As to Claim 1, Heimermann teaches a system to conduct business electronically (see para [0048] and [0054]) (100, 200, 500, 600) comprising: a query input component (see Fig. 6 and para [0300] and [0333]) (110) that accepts (see para [0255] [0324]) product purchasing criteria (see para [0250] and [0307]) from a buyer (see para [0055] and [0060]); and a search engine (see Fig. 6 and para [0333]) component (130) that retrieves (see para [0199] and [0270] . . receive.) group purchasing offers (see para [0008] and [0332]) based at least upon the product purchasing (see Abstract and para [0008] [0023]) criteria (see para [0250] and [0307]) from the buyer (see para [0055] and [0060]).

As to Claim 2, Heimermann teaches the said system, further comprising a spider component (see Fig. 6 and para [0333] . . search engine.) (210) that automatically discovers (see para [0066]) group purchasing offers (see para [0008] and [0332]) on a seller's website.

As to Claim 3 Heimermann teaches the said system, further comprising a deal room (see para [0057] and [0058]) (510) on the Internet (see para [0015] - [0016] and [0057]) wherein a product (see para [0059] and [0061]) is available for purchase (see Abstract and para [0051]) in accordance with a group purchasing offer (see para [0008] and [0332]).

As to Claim 4, Heimermann teaches the said system of claim 3, access to the deal room (see para [0057] and [0058]) (510) is restricted to buyers (see para [0055] and [0060]) registered (see para [0219] and [0227] . . authorized.) under terms (see para [0214] and [0216]) established by a seller of the deal room.

As to Claim 5, Heimermann teaches the said system of claim 4, further comprising an invoice (see Fig. 2 and para [0124] and [0242]) component (520) that stores (see para [0235] - [0236] and [0278]) an open invoice of a purchase (see Abstract and para [0051]) completed in the deal room (see para [0057] and [0058]).

As to Claim 6, Heimermann teaches the said system of claim 5, the invoice (see Fig 2 and para [0124] and [0242]) component monitors (see para [0229] [0240]) the deal room (see para [0057] and [0058]) (510) and updates (see Fig. 6 and para [0142] and [0300]) the invoice to reflect changes in the current price (see para [0060] and [0062]) resulting from additional orders (see Abstract and para [0298] and [0313]).

As to Claim 7, Heimermann teaches a method to facilitate business transactions (see para [0054] and [0060]) comprising discovering volume pricing (see para [0031] and [0057]) offers (see para [0034] and [0060]) based upon a product (see para [0059] and [0061]) a current price (see para [0060] and [0062]) a potential price and/or a shipping schedule; and purchasing (see Abstract and para [0051]) goods (see Abstract and para [0008] [0023]) in accordance with a discovered volume pricing offer.

NOTES TO FORM PCT/ISA/220 (continued)

The letter must indicate the differences between the claims as filed and the claims as amended. It must, in particular, indicate, in connection with each claim appearing in the international application (it being understood that identical indications concerning several claims may be grouped), whether

- (i) the claim is unchanged;
- (ii) the claim is cancelled;
- (iii) the claim is new;
- (iv) the claim replaces one or more claims as filed;
- (v) the claim is the result of the division of a claim as filed.

The following examples illustrate the manner in which amendments must be explained in the accompanying letter:

1. [Where originally there were 48 claims and after amendment of some claims there are 51]:
"Claims 1 to 29, 31, 32, 34, 35, 37 to 48 replaced by amended claims bearing the same numbers, claims 30, 33 and 36 unchanged; new claims 49 to 51 added."
2. [Where originally there were 15 claims and after amendment of all claims there are 11]:
"Claims 1 to 15 replaced by amended claims 1 to 11."
3. [Where originally there were 14 claims and the amendments consist in cancelling some claims and in adding new claims]:
"Claims 1 to 6 and 14 unchanged; claims 7 to 13 cancelled; new claims 15, 16 and 17 added." or
"Claims 7 to 13 cancelled; new claims 15, 16 and 17 added; all other claims unchanged."
4. [Where various kinds of amendments are made]:
"Claims 1-10 unchanged; claims 11 to 13, 18 and 19 cancelled; claims 14, 15 and 16 replaced by amended claim 14; claim 17 subdivided into amended claims 15, 16 and 17; new claims 20 and 21 added."

"Statement under Article 19(1)" (Rule 46.4)

The amendments may be accompanied by a statement explaining the amendments and indicating any impact that such amendments might have on the description and the drawings (which cannot be amended under Article 19(1)).

The statement will be published with the international application and the amended claims.

It must be in the language in which the international application is to be published.

It must be brief, not exceeding 500 words if in English or if translated into English.

It should not be confused with and does not replace the letter indicating the differences between the claims as filed and as amended. It must be filed on a separate sheet and must be identified as such by a heading, preferably by using the words "Statement under Article 19(1)."

It may not contain any disparaging comments on the international search report or the relevance of citations contained in that report. Reference to citations, relevant to a given claim, contained in the international search report may be made only in connection with an amendment of that claim.

Consequence if a demand for international preliminary examination has already been filed

If, at the time of filing any amendments and any accompanying statement, under Article 19, a demand for international preliminary examination has already been submitted, the applicant must preferably, at the time of filing the amendments (and any statement) with the International Bureau, also file with the International Preliminary Examining Authority a copy of such amendments (and of any statement) and, where required, a translation of such amendments for the procedure before that Authority (see Rules 55.3(a) and 62.2, first sentence). For further information, see the Notes to the demand form (PCT/IPEA/401).

If a demand for international preliminary examination is made, the written opinion of the International Searching Authority will, except in certain cases where the International Preliminary Examining Authority did not act as International Searching Authority and where it has notified the International Bureau under Rule 66.1bis(b), be considered to be a written opinion of the International Preliminary Examining Authority. If a demand is made, the applicant may submit to the International Preliminary Examining Authority a reply to the written opinion together, where appropriate, with amendments before the expiration of 3 months from the date of mailing of Form PCT/ISA/220 or before the expiration of 22 months from the priority date, whichever expires later (Rule 43bis.1(c)).

Consequence with regard to translation of the international application for entry into the national phase

The applicant's attention is drawn to the fact that, upon entry into the national phase, a translation of the claims as amended under Article 19 may have to be furnished to the designated/elected Offices, instead of, or in addition to, the translation of the claims as filed.

For further details on the requirements of each designated/elected Office, see the PCT Applicant's Guide, Volume II.
